

PAUL D. NORTH, JR., P.E., ESQ.
PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

- Of counsel at Zator Law
- Licensed Professional Engineer in Pennsylvania and has over 30 years' varied experience as an Attorney and a Civil Engineer combining both of those professions.
- Concentrates his legal practice in the civil engineering-related areas of law including land use, zoning, subdivision and land development, municipal law, real estate, and construction law such as contracts, payment, and dispute resolution.
- Practice has also focused on municipal solid waste and recycling contracts, real estate title searches and analysis, property boundaries and easements, Pennsylvania road law, ALTA surveys, and environmental studies, stormwater law including MS4 and NPDES permits, water and sewer matters, public contracts, mechanic's liens, PennDOT Highway Occupancy Permits, rights-of-way, and utility relocations. Paul also has expertise in railroad track engineering and old railroad deeds and maps, and has presented on them on the national, state, and local levels.
- Admitted to the Pennsylvania Bar, U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and U.S. Court of Appeals - Third Circuit.
- Member: American Society of Civil Engineers
American Railway Engineering and Maintenance of Way Association
- Graduate: Villanova University School of Law
  - Graduated Cum Laude
  - Juris Doctor
- Graduate: Lafayette College
  - Graduated Magna Cum Laude
  - Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering

CONTACT INFORMATION

American Heritage Building
4400 Walbert Avenue
Allentown PA 18104
610.432.1900 Phone; 610.432.1707 Fax
pnorth@zatorlaw.com